Causes and Consequences of the Israeli

It further proposed that at the end of a transitional period, the best form of government for the West Bank and the Gaza Strip would be self-government by the resident Palestinian population in association with Jordan.

What are Israel and Palestine? Why are they fighting?

. At the closing press conference, the parties issued this joint statement: 'The sides declare that they have never been closer to reaching an agreement and it is thus our shared belief that the remaining gaps could be bridged with the resumption of negotiations following the Israeli election'. But the treaty is the first legal document negotiated between the Holy See and the Palestinian state, giving the Vatican's former signs of recognition an unambiguous confirmation in a formal, bilateral treaty.

Israeli

The resolution was approved 14-0 with the one abstention. For the first time, all the parties of the conflict met at the negotiating table. At least 58 Palestinians were killed and more than 2,700 injured in Gaza as deadly protests took place ahead of, during and after the ceremony in Jerusalem, making it the deadliest day there since the 2014 Gaza war.

Guide: Why are Israel and the Palestinians fighting over Gaza?

Both sides agreed to the guidelines with some reservations and issued a statement saying that they had never been closer to an agreement. The president also issued a blunt repudiation of Israel's settlement enterprise in the West Bank, an issue that has strained Washington's ties with Jerusalem .
