Ukiyo

She was born into an upper-middle-class family: Her father, Robert Simpson Cassatt later Cassatt , was a successful stockbroker and land speculator. That few works of their contemporaries and followers are shown is not because the art became extinct after the death of these men, but for the reason that their aesthetic value is so small. But Florentines during that time recognized it as so special and beautiful that they actually had a meeting about where to place the sculpture.
