About this Item: The Cable Company, Chicago, 1929. Romance, who loves to nod and sing With drowsy head and folded wing Among the green leaves as they shake Far down within some shadowy lake, To me a painted paroquet Hath been—most familiar bird— Taught me my alphabet to say, To lisp my very earliest word While in the wild wood I did lie, A child—with a most knowing eye. Love poems are usually poems that express love between partners; they associated with passion, lust and eternal love to each other.
