The essay written by Prof. This is the title we find in the most ancient of its manuscript copies Topkapi Sarayi Library in Istanbul, MS Ahmet III 3472.

AlFateh Muhammad Zubair

The empty tomb chamber has a distinctive brick and plaster dome, with ribs that rise straight up for the first quarter of the dome, then bend to the right and spiral up to the top, an example of the experimentation with ribbing that was popular from 1360 to 1400.

Abu Ishaq Ibrahim Ibn Yahya Al

The text explains the construction of the device with the aid of the letters so that the reader can understand the device by reading the text and referring to the illustrations.

Jami' al

The overall number of drawings amounts to 174. Yet, this prosperity started to fade year after year and the Republic of the Sudan began losing its place as a destination for Islamic sciences studies.

About Us

He argues in particular that the various machines developed and conceptualized by al-Jazari reflect not only an alternative perspective on automation, which were radically different from those developed in the West, but they also present a range of new possibilities for contemporary explorations in robotics art. We hope that this journey is a source of education and enlightenment.
