I attempt to dispel any remaining suggestion that Chen was a Quanzhen Daoist in any substantial sense. This aspect of reading must be more than a disinterested analysis of the text's background and makeup: it must also involve critique of the text's ideology. The authority he gains will help him attract a support network and audience base of patrons, disciples, or readers.

Xin Guang Hua Shi

This Yuanyang jing sounds like a Lingbao scripture found as DZ 334, P. Chen seems mostly to have been dealing with Chan in the form of texts, but he also had cordial relations with Chan Buddhists.
