The governor's letter of March 19 canceled the Detroit campaign and bade Clark to chastise the Shawnee before the end of summer. The father was a popular bandleader during the 1910 and '20s who served as a musical mentor to a young Hoagy Carmichael.

George Rogers Clark in the American Revolution

He uses many previously unknown sources, including diaries, journals and personal letters to evoke the emotional effects of the war's many sacrifices and bloody confrontations.
