Trinidad and Tobago Parliament

The two most common means of doing so are a decision by the Business Committee or the House to make extended sitting hours available, and an urgency motion. It was decided, on the invitation of Speaker Glen, that, upon commencing the sitting the following day, the prayer would be read but the doors would not be opened. Certain departmental staff were permitted to be present and the Serjeant-at-Arms remained in the Chamber.

In 1994 the House adopted Standing Order 28 4 , which explicitly authorizes the Speaker to recall the House at the request of the government for the sole purpose of attending Royal Assent.

Chapter 13 Sittings of the House

In some way you can compare it with babysitting but instead of looking after a kid when its parents are away, you have to look after a house or property while its owner s are away. During all-night sittings of the House the sitting has been suspended for supper and breakfast.
