Discipleship Ministries

It should include all topics to be discussed at the meeting and should also include the date, location, starting time, scheduled breaks, and anticipated adjourning time.

Robert's Rules of Order, Nominations And Elections

When the secretary mails the members a notice about the nomination and election meeting, the letter can include a request that members who do not wish to be considered for office notify the secretary in writing. If something doesn't quite add up, a member should question it during the meeting. Whether one is chairing a committee or is a committee member, her or she faces the challenge of getting involved in the work the committee was formed to accomplish.

Pastor Search Committee Handbook, Revised

It will also help identify biblical qualifications for a pastor; develop, evaluate, and rank profiles of applicants; conduct interviews; present the prospective pastor to the church; and finally, orient him when he arrives. Effective committees don't just happen. However, in some national organizations that meet yearly or biennially every two years, this is difficult.

The presiding officer votes along with all the other members, although she is never allowed to cast a tie-breaker in a ballot vote. The secretary should give the committee a copy of the membership list, the bylaws, a description of the duties of each office, and the eligibility requirements. Organizations can create and write election rules to correct this mistake.

Guides for Committee Chairs & Committee Members

Revision includes these additional chapters: Orientation, Role of Committee Chairperson, and Role of Committee Members. However, calling nominations from your seat is often impractical, so you may want to adopt a more formal nomination process. If the motion is adopted, the assembly can adjourn before the vote is announced if it has another meeting scheduled.

Guides for Committee Chairs & Committee Members

If members don't understand exactly how it works, the ones whose preferred candidate doesn't get voted on are likely to think something is amiss. Good decisions are made when committees examine all sides of an issue, but don't let members personalize the debate.
