Football League First Division

The 2013-14 season marked the 125th anniversary of the Football League's formation and of Preston winning the first ever championship undefeated. Troops on the Western Front would spend considerable periods of time behind the lines.

But with a population boom and rising success, Preston rejoined the VFA in 1926 as part of the turmoil when Hawthorn, North Melbourne and Footscray left the VFA for the VFL. The stage was now set for these two historic clubs to face each other for the first time, an event which finally occurred on November 23, 1901, as the sides clashed at Bloomfield Road in front of 6,000 fans.
