The poetry of Hocceve is wretchedly bad, abounding with pedantry, and destitute of all grace or spirit. Jus commune droit commun, law based on Roman law, canon law, and the interpretations of glossators and commentators and common to Europe at the beginning of the Renaissance. Under Antoninus Pius, schools of Stoicism were supported at public expense.

Zalamea's main hypothesis is that Latin America is a relational place within a continuum, and that its general capacity for hybridization and counterpoints constantly swings it to and fro between the two poles of universality and resistance. In addition to the 24 countries without national bibliographies, 11 more have little more than accession lists produced by national libraries. It includes publications on women, children, leisure and sport, and humor.
