I asked where I could find the actual history of Africa. What is less well known is that the Brownists themselves had made a previous expedition to North America. In addition to the various chapters there are handy chronological and categorical sections which allow you to see the trends in a year or time period, or pick a field of achievement.

Archaeologists have recently discovered graves that might include hers. However, you will finally read that book when it has determined you are ready for it. It is absolutely impossible to summarize this tome, so I will share some anecdotes that particularly resonate I rarely write reviews, but this book deserves one.
