The Bereavement Ministry Program : A Comprehensive Guide for Churches

For many men, the death of a woman may result in social disconnection that leads to isolation, loneliness, and depression. The support of a group can be invaluable, especially when grief is new. It was especially interesting that the group consisted of as many men as there were women, ranging in age from thirty to eighty.

The Bereavement Ministry Program : A Comprehensive Guide for Churches

At the time, the need for comfort and pastoral care for those who were grieving—although obvious and very real—was somewhat spiritually abstract. Grief ministry is the love of Christ in action. The purpose of the program is to provide ministry to those who are suffering because of the death of someone they love.
