That we the word continually; that we meditate upon it, and our delight in it, ; ; ; ; ; 1. He led me out through his word. This being our present , there being such differences in, and about religion among us, the of them being incurably scandalous and perilous, our inquiry is, What guide or a man that takes care of his own salvation, that would know the truth, and have the benefit of it, that would please here, and come unto the eternal enjoyment of him hereafter, ought to betake himself, and firmly adhere unto, as that which will safely lead and him unto all these ends? We may consider what use they make of these secular advantages and revenues, which they have obtained merely by virtue of this pretense.
