Backstabbing

Whatever the reason behind this behavior, it's important to protect yourself from it. Calling the main character gullible would be an insult to gullible people. Finding ways to live with the backstabber or remove yourself from the situation.

Back

Observe the suspects several times at least before you leap to a conclusion, as rude behavior could just be the sign of a bad day. Backstabbing friends are a part of life, and the act itself happens to nearly everyone at some point in life. John101: You know Adam, hes not interested in you.

Back Stabber

Lies and deception are the tools of a backstabbing coworker on a mission to prove how inept you are at your job. It is hard to imagine what a friend can gain by backstabbing. If you don't have any trusted friends who fit that description, talk to someone who doesn't know him, and describe his specific actions and behavior, not your opinion on his character.

If so, observe your current relationships and strive for a balance. Still, it can help you better understand the situation by stepping into their shoes.

DS

John101: Yeah, i've liked you for ages! As described under Protecting Yourself, you should be prepared with detailed information on the incidents that occurred. Make eye contact and maintain a neutral facial expression. What do you do next? Sometimes, you can't recover the trust the betrayal cost your friendship.

'Backstabber': Chris Christie Dismisses Kasich's Biden Endorsement as Meaningless

Why People Backstab Reasons why people backstab others range from cowardice to a need for power. This is someone you trusted and believed had your best interests at heart just as you did hers. Biden's going to be getting calls from John Kasich, he's going to want to change his phone number.

Backstabbing

Only do this when you sincerely agree, and don't go overboard and flatter him.
