Visit 5 Tring, Hertfordshire Where local justice was administered In 1751, Ruth Osborne and her husband, John, were accused of witchcraft, dragged from their place of shelter in Tring Church and publicly ducked. When she gave evidence against Elizabeth her mother , Elizabeth had to be removed from the court screaming and cursing her daughter. The original twelve accused all lived in the area around Pendle Hill in Lancashire, England, a wild and lawless region at that time.

THE WATERWITCH, Lancaster

The Pendle Witch Trials, part of the more extensive Lancashire Witch Trials, are among the most famous witch trials in English history, as well as some of the best recorded of the 17th Century. After hearing this evidence, the judge detained Alizon, Anne, Old Demdike and Old Chattox and waited for trial.

Lancashire Witch Trials

When England punished by death everything from bread and sheep stealing to wholesale killing, crime was far more general than it is today.
