His cinematography emphasizes the claustrophobic confinement of the Chen compound and substitutes for the infinite depths and inwardness of a well the imposing verticality and ordered space of a building. Hou Xiaoxian and Zhu Tianwen: A Time to Live, A Time to Die According to Zhu Tianwen, Hou considers straight chronological narration too artificial for the incidental unfolding of real events, so it is not surprising to see him create a story that is more lyrical than linear Zhu Tianwen and Wu Nianzhen 1989: 30. As is seen from the name of the professional association, interpreters are often called conference interpreters, though their functions can be much broader.
