Susie Q (film)

As a matter of fact, everyone--robbers, police, and Suzi--seems inept: the robbers gradually reveal their identities to their captive, the police drop a variety of balls throughout the case, and Suzi makes several ill-fated escape attempts, all designed, apparently, to either increase or defuse tension.

Susie Q (film)

Shipped within 24 hours from our UK warehouse. She was intended only to be a temporary hostage, to be used to threaten people into not attacking the robbers. He won the 1986 Other Award, for his book Starry Night, which was also a runner up for The Guardian Children's Fiction Award and was shortlisted for the Young Observer Teenage Fiction Prize.

The kidnapping of Suzie Q (1999 edition)

Though the rarely seen monster is a properly hard-to-resolve jumble of massive rage and lank hair, Dr. Spine creases, wear to binding and pages from reading. Once at the kidnappers' hideout, Suzie is kept locked up, but mostly not tied.

No one planned on Suzie's being taken hostage.
