The designs of the French government were first suspected by John Jay, soon after his arrival in Paris. At each subsequent regular annual session of the Convention, one-fourth of the board of trustees or directors of said corporation shall be elected by the Convention to succeed the members of said board retiring. In recent weeks I have met those campaigning against a proliferation of these machines—people from a range of different organisations, both locally and nationally, who are concerned about their potential impact—as well as representatives from high street bookmakers.
