UNESCO in the Making

Over 650 million people lived in slums in 1990. Still, 20,000 girls under age 18 give birth in developing countries every day. The Manual enables governments to assess the condition of their juvenile justice systems and make reforms as necessary.

History of child rights

The difficulty of traveling to learning centers along narrow, steep, uneven, often slippery paths in the crowded camps is a barrier to education for children with physical disabilities.

UNESCO in the Making

The committee specifically outlined within that requirement the right of asylum seekers and refugees to education. Conflict in the Middle East and North Africa region alone has driven 13 million children out of school. Bibi said she returned to live with her parents because her husband physically abused her.

Denial of Education for Rohingya Refugee Children in Bangladesh

In 2009, 41 per cent of new HIV infections were among young people aged 15 to 24.

Abortion as a Human Right—International and Regional Standards

She subsequently gave birth prematurely and her baby did not survive. The States Parties to the present Covenant recognize the right of everyone to education. I teach all eight Burmese subjects.

Convention on the Rights of the Child

They may only be attacked if, and only for such time as, they are military objectives—those objects that contribute to the military action and whose destruction at that time would offer a definite military gain. By 2030, eliminate gender disparities in education and ensure equal access to all levels of education and vocational training for the vulnerable, including persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples and children in vulnerable situations. In 2011, drought in the Horn of Africa exacerbated a malnutrition and hunger crisis which spread out to Sahel countries in West Africa.

Failures to Protect and Fulfill the Right to Education through Global Development Agendas

The Declaration prohibits attacks against or imprisonment of civilian women and children, and upholds the sanctity of the rights of women and children during armed conflict. The Decade had been a period of raising awareness and enacting measures to improve the situation of persons with disabilities and provide them with equal opportunities. Based on research in over 40 countries, this report looks at the key barriers that threaten the right to education today, and the key ways that governments are failing to deliver on core aspects of their right to education obligations.

Home : Education International

Every endeavour should be made to use the best available scientific knowledge and methodology in addressing and periodically reviewing bioethical issues. Hand each group copies of the relevant role card and explain that participants have 30 minutes to discuss and clarify their own positions.
