Self, Society, Value, and the Romantic Hero on JSTOR

Exhibited three years later at the Leicester Galleries, it was then presented to the Yeatses by the artist as a belated wedding gift, and has remained in the family ever since, revealed by accident when her children generously allowed me to rifle through their archives and possessions Plate 8.

Self

Krol Paris , 1964; dual-language edition translated by C. Certainly, this singular man finds himself in the midst of ordinary life, but Valery attributes him with the apparent traits of resigned mediocrity - small stock exchange speculations to keep himself in funds, like any small rentier, daily meals at a miserable restaurant, a flat with the austerity of a cell.

Sonnets to Orpheus

Reading Rilke: Reflections on the Problems of Translation.

The Meaning of India: Essays

He is the Stranger by excellence, perhaps not dissimilar with the portrait painted by Camus.
