Hopefully I will see some fructification in the months ahead.

Sri Durga Sahasranama stotram

A couple of years ago, I started making them into a compilation but it is still an unfinished project There is a joke in my IT field - the IT projects start fast and quickly reach 90% and it remain 90% forever!! The verses śloka 2 to 17 below are described in the Śrī Kamalā aṣṭottara śatanāmāvalī, which is derived from this stotram hymn. She is glittering with red garlands and ornaments. All that one wishes and desires will soon take form and get accomplished.

I am happy to share a very rare more or less unheard of Vishnu Sahasranama Stotram from Skanda Puranam, Avanti Khanda, Chapter 74 as part of Vamana Kunda Mahima. In this verse, She is described with four hands. In the front hands she holds a bow made out of sugar cane and arrows made out of flowers.
