Gift from the Sea

Nothing is more important than rest, especially on vacation.

Gift from the Sea Summary & Study Guide

Lindbergh herself in the 20 year anniversary afterword in the version I have mused on how quickly roles and rights changed in her own lifetime, and how central women were to not only their own rights but other civil rights movements. Following the of their eldest child, they lived in Europe, where Charles was impressed by Germany's new air power.

Arriving at the Lindbergh home police began the first search into the disappearance of young Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr. Morgantown also offers a large community swimming pool and tennis courts. But now, some 30+ years later, it had a whole new meaning for me as I truly understood and felt exactly what she was expressing.

30+ quotes from Gift from the Sea by Anne Morrow Lindbergh

Life must have been so simple then. Anne Morrow Lindbergh takes us with her on her two week sabbatical to a Florida island, where she slowly unravels the tangled busyness of her life as wife, mother, and writer. I am convinced it has nothing inherently to do, as I once supposed, with chastity or children.

Gift from the sea by Anne Morrow Lindbergh First edition

This was number four in a stack of nine that I picked up today at Borders. An anniversary copy of the book has an introduction by her daughter, Reeve. Feb 15, 2021 05:46AM I've really got to stop reading a book just based on the title and cover.
