Surah al

It shall definitely come and they will have to take the long journey back to their Lord. Examples of such suppression are also found in classical Arabic. He writes: The pronoun found in the phrase بَلَّغْتَ التَّرَاقِي is for the soul which is not mentioned here.

Al

Thus, for example, it is said: وَإِنَّهُ لَكَيْتَبٌ عَزِيزٌ.

Beautiful Names of Allah: al

They have neither offered the prayer to the Almighty nor spent in His way even though these were the two deeds which were to be of use to them in this journey. When the preposition إِلَى is used with نَظَرُ just as it means to look at something, it also means to await someone's blessings and favours.

Beautiful Names of Allah: al

The Almighty assured him that the responsibility of preserving and reciting it was His responsibility. In the previous
