Was Walt Whitman racist?

This epic sense of purpose, though, is coupled with an almost Keatsian valorization of repose and passive perception. His post-Civil War anointment as the good, gray poet was only one reason for his reticence, Schmidgall suggests.

10 of the Best Walt Whitman Poems Poet Lovers Must Read

And what do you think has become of the women and children? But no, Walt was never a nurse; rather, he was a hospital volunteer — more like a one-man USO who supported the comfort and morale of the soldiers. Since 2006, I have been spending hundreds of hours and thousands of dollars each month to keep Brain Pickings going.
