Bartending Presentation

Blend your mixture together until it is smooth.

Bartending 101: Tips, Tricks, and Techniques for Better Drinks

The , made with the Peruvian and Chilean national spirit , along with lime, syrup and an optional egg white, is appropriate for any occasion.

Cocktails 101: A simple guide to making mixed drinks

But in the meantime, it's good to get some practice in, whether that means making cocktails for yourself at home—with your enviable , that is—or strategizing about the first cocktail you'll order when it's safe to settle down on that barstool once again. I have 'adjusted' some of my recipes with info found in this work, and am adding a couple of new cocktails to my own oeuvre. But if you get to the end of this list and feel thirsty for more,.

9 Cocktail Trends for 2019 (with recipes)

Mash the limes and the sugar against the bottom and sides of your glass with your spoon and add in your ice cubes. The addition of an egg white makes the drink creamy and luscious.

Classic Mardi Gras Drinks

But Gary Regan, a smarter man than I am, to use your blender for this one, so feel free, unless you're trying to tone up your arms. Nevertheless, it has so many recipes that I found interesting, I had to buy the book myself instead of repeatedly checking it out of the library. One final note before we begin: the average shot glass holds roughly 45ml.
