Origins: Darwinism vs. Design

If the purpose of science is to discover the truth, ruling out an option ahead of time cannot be considered good science.

Darwinism (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

Johnson writes, The proper metaphysical basis for science is not naturalism or materialism but the fact that the creator of the cosmos not only created an intelligible universe but also created the powers of reasoning which enable us to conduct scientific investigations.

Evolution 2.0: Breaking the Deadlock Between Darwin and Design

Before that, there was nothing physical—not even particles. Though the question of what God has revealed through Scripture regarding life's origin would also be a worthwhile topic, we have to leave this for another time just for the sake of focus.
