4 New Methods of Teaching English in the Modern Classroom

Regarding punctuation, some Arabic learners apply Arabic rules to English and, as a result, often use commas instead of full stops. First of all, if all this in a test paper is inserted in a test paper, one must be careful to balance the number of items for a selected category. His views expressed resistance against sign language and encouraged oral education for all students.

Motivation, language attitudes, and globalization: A Hungarian perspective. Consequently, this study offers some methods to motivate learners in learning foreign languages, those are the Verbal Method VM1 and the Visual Method VM2, and they are further discussed in the paper. Journal of Instructional Psychology, 36 4, 296—307.

How do foreign language teachers motivate students in language learning?

This implies that every teacher should modify the syllabus to correspond with the needs of the learners. I am still teaching my student Bothyna, who is a smart, eight-year-old girl.

Communicative Language Teaching

Of the 77 students enrolled in these classes when the study took place, 59 voluntarily participated in the study.

Improving Speaking Skills in EFL Classes through Collaborative Learning

In this approach, every student is active because there are interactions among students and teacher verbally and non- verbally. Teaching is a daunting task. For example, blue is called 'azrak', green is called 'akhdar' and red is called 'ahmar', etc.
