Graham Greene Movies List: Best to Worst

Bazin paints Hitchcock as an innovator who has actually fallen behind the times.

André Bazin and Graham Greene (and Alfred Hitchcock): Some Points of Contact

The grateful Coral falls in love with him and spends the night in his compartment, during which, to his surprise, he discovers that she is a virgin. It would go on to also earn an Oscar nomination.

Graham Greene on Knight Without Armour

To live up to this confidence, he is forced to conform his life more and more to the model of the priesthood: he gives up his job, calls off his marriage, and moves into the rectory. Greene appeared in Amazon's series Goliath.

Graham Greene (actor)

Petrie enriches every picture in which he appears the scene owes a great deal of its authenticity to Mr. In Captain January she wore trousers with the mature suggestiveness of a Dietrich: her neat and well-developed rump twisted in the tap-dance: her eyes had a sidelong searching coquetry. He appeared in as , 's old friend.

Crime pays

In 2005, he played the potential love interest of the female lead in. The review was reprinted in , and the scandalous sections read as follows: The owners of a child star are like leaseholders—their property diminishes in value every year. Between 1935 and 1940, when Greene was the movie critic for The Spectator and the short-lived weekly Night and Day, no spy film won higher praise from him than our series entry 1937 , starring Robert Donat as a British agent and Marlene Dietrich as the Russian aristocrat he steers through the chaos of the Bolshevik Revolution.
