The gods have only allowed a very few people to return from the underworld, which suggests that love is one of the few guides to action that they value supremely. The same iterative procedure is used to accomplish this more modern alignment. Moreover, in terms of content, Socrates claims that he can make a better speech based on ideas borrowed from other writers.

Phaedrus : Plato : Free Download, Borrow, and Streaming : Internet Archive

Socrates remarks about how Phaedrus was caught up in the rhetorical force of Lysias speech, and yet it was precisely here that the speech was so obviously lacking 235a. For instead of internalizing and understanding things, students would rely on writing to remind themselves of various matters. When one is reminded of true beauty by the sight of a beautiful boy, he is called a lover.

Phaedrus

It is here, the speaker claims, that the winged soul takes its stand on the outer surface of heaven and gazes upon which is beyond the heavens gr i.

The Symposium: 178a

Socrates, rubbing the place on his leg where his just removed bonds had been, remarks on how strange it is that a man cannot have both pleasure and pain at the same time, yet when he pursues and catches one, he is sure to meet with the other as well.

Phaedrus (dialogue)

Such discourse makes the seed forever immortal and renders the man who has it happy as any human being can be. No commercial tours at this stage sorry.

Phaedrus Character Analysis in Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance

In addition to theme of love discussed in the speeches, seeming and sexual innuendo is abundant; we see the flirtation between Phaedrus and Socrates. A passage in Homer, wherein Odysseus beats his breast and orders his heart to endure, strengthens this picture of the opposition between soul and bodily emotions.
