Bills Explained

As we have previously committed, NPF4 will also include explicit policy guidance on the Agent of Change principle, recognising the need to support live music venues and their contribution to Scottish culture and society. Very few government bills in Scotland and Wales have failed to become law. The Bill has been a major focus of the Scottish Government's Planning and Architecture Division, and of organisations across Scotland with an interest in planning, for the past 2 years.

Scotland becomes the first nation to provide free sanitary products for all

This will transform the system and support the changes we are making across all aspects of the planning system, including the shift to a place-based approach.

Scottish independence referendum: SNP 'roadmap' to second referendum explained

We consider this will be more helpful than reporting in 2021, before the Act has been fully implemented and before NPF4 has been able to have its influence. PDF, 865KB PDF, 118KB Amendments to the Bill since the previous version are indicated by side-lining in the right margin.

Education (Scotland) Bill: draft

The creation of new legislatures in Edinburgh, Cardiff and Belfast marked the beginning of the new era of devolution. In 2017, the Commission on Parliamentary Reform, set up to consider the functioning of the Scottish Parliament, heard reports that party whips had co-ordinated committee votes not just on legislation but also on non-legislative inquiries, making it harder for committees to reach cross-party consensus. This type of statutory challenge is termed a Section 33 reference.

Boris Johnson will have to take legal action to block Indyref2 if SNP win majority at the next election

The public usually gets the chance to share their views. The Scottish Local Government Pensions Advisory Group SLOGPAG , comprising representatives from COSLA, the trades unions and the Scottish Government, has over the last eighteen months, been working, to develop proposals for a new Scottish Local Government Pension Scheme with effect from April 2015.

Education (Scotland) Bill: draft

The devolved legislatures have taken the opportunity of devolution to do things differently from Westminster, leading to growing legislative divergence across the UK. This method of developing the new Scheme to meet Scottish needs represents the Scottish Government's preferred collaborative approach and the advantages of this open and transparent process are recognised by each of us.

Scottish Budget 2020

However, the Fresh Start Agreement has not been fully implemented. The pdf and html have both been updated to reflect these changes.

Bills (proposed laws)

The 2017 reduction in the size of the Northern Ireland Assembly was part of an effort to reduce administrative costs under the 2014 Stormont House Agreement. For your convenience, the questions contained in the main consultation document, which we would appreciate your views on, have also been collated into a separate questionnaire which can be completed and 'e' mailed or posted back to us at the SPPA.
