

Greek stones speak - the story of archaeology in Greek lands

Methuen - Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

Description: -

-

Greece -- Antiquities.

Excavations (Archaeology) -- Greece. Greek stones speak - the story of archaeology in Greek lands

-Greek stones speak - the story of archaeology in Greek lands

Notes: Bibliography: p. 447-458. - Includes index.

This edition was published in 1962

Filesize: 8.91 MB

Tags: #Summary #of #The #Book #of #Deuteronomy

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

These words were spoken to them on the 11th month of the final year of Israel's wandering in the wilderness, the 40th year after they left Egypt. It is really the main message here that Moses gives them, the first speech was more of an introduction and preparation for this message. Deuteronomy 33 speaks about Moses' blessing on the people and Deuteronomy 34 records briefly the account of the death of Moses, the great leader of Israel.

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

It deals first with the 10 Commandments Deuteronomy chapters 5-11 and secondly the details behind God's law with the emphasis on following God statutes, religious ordinances, and living with one another as the people of God Deuteronomy chapters 12-26. He repeatedly encourages them to obey God and reminds them about the events that took place in the 40 years of wandering in the wilderness. In the first speech Deuteronomy 1:1-4:43, Moses warns the people of Israel about the sins which had kept their fathers from entering the promised land.

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

They were to read it every seventh year when the people assembled for the feast of Tabernacles. The third speech Deuteronomy 27:1-31:30 is primarily a message about the blessings of obedience and the curses of disobedience. He carefully explains what happens when there are difficult situations and they choose not to trust the Lord but rather act in obstinance, doubt, fear, and finally disobedience.

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

Ebal, Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali were to speak the curses which God had promised them if they were to disobey him.

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

God told Moses and Joshua to come before Him at the tabernacle and He told them of the future infidelity of the children of Israel and instructed

Moses to leave the people a song as a witness against them which they were to learn.

Summary of The Book of Deuteronomy

Once they had crossed over the Jordan River they were commanded to set up great stones on Mount Ebal, with the law of God inscribed and to build a great altar. Moses wrote down the law in a book, gave it to the priests, who were to keep it as a perpetual reminder for the people of Israel Deuteronomy 31:9-13.

Related Books

- Centrica plc and Dynegy Storage Ltd and Dynegy Onshore Processing UK Ltd - a report on the merger si
- Transfiguration du politique - la tribalisation du monde
- [\[Actas\] - primer Simposio Nacional de Geologia Economica, San Juan 28-29 octubre 1971](#)
- Skazki Saltykova-Shchedrina
- When I was a child