slaying Tiamat, the primeval goddess who took a dragon form to challenge many of the younger gods as an act of revenge, instigated by the murder of her husband Apsû. .

The Creation, the Flood, and Gilgamesh

Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces. Tiamat, a woman, that flies at you with weapons! To raise or bring low--these shall be in your hand. They decide to wipe out humans with a plague, but this only decreases the population temporarily, so 1200 years later the gods send a drought to try to keep the population down.

‘When On High’: The Ancient Akkadian Enuma Elish Creation Epic

You brandished your naked bow, sated were the arrows at your command. The Epic of Atrahasis a hero king tells the story of the creation of man somewhat differently. When the gods, like man, bore the work, carried the labor-basket—the labor-basket of the great gods—the work was heavy, much was the distress.

Comparison Of Zeus, The Greek Myth God And Marduk

Such lists were probably based upon very ancient documents, and prove that the astral element in Babylonian religion was very considerable. Then there was a movement in the waters, and the deities issued forth. .
