The art of putting paintings under the hammer

He was elected to the Pastel Society in 1911 and became a member of the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colours in 1922. The two groups reunited in 1898.

BJCP Styles: Commercial Examples (Beer Only) Flashcards by Bret Hammond

Miguel Tio's paintings are full of powerful energy and symbolism. Robinson is a strong case in point.

Timeline of Performance Art in Ireland: What is the history of live performance art in Ireland?

The ballade- or quasi-ballade form is repetitive and incremental rather than linear and developmental, and hence more impersonal and public than sonnets or couplets, which have to get somewhere and which had dominated in the English Renaissance. I'm only giving it a literal translation for the purposes of analysis; I have neither the time nor the skill to translate it poetically.
