Feminist Philosophy of Religion (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

The midrash explains that the men went back to their wives and the wives refused to give their gold to the creation of an idol. As a result, in many cases, the issues of religion and gender parity are often dismissed as too complicated to address.

Women In Ancient Christianity

The downside of engaging with conversations about religion remains the swiftness of response, which does not provide space for considered opinion generation.

Religion

Belief and its formation, they show, is implicated in the formation of the subject and sexual difference, as well as related issues of embodiment and presence and absence.

Religion has a woman problem

If god is behind my marriage, maybe it will be stronger and work out. Click image above to download PDF, 2. All such strategies and methods, Fulkerson shows, fail to recognize and account for the multiplicity of differences among myriad subject positions.

Welcome to UU Women and Religion

Wherever Buddhism grew, these societies were very patriarchal.

Women and Religion

First, the dilemma of homoerotic desire is posed when men worship a male God in a culture based on heterosexual complementarity. Extremist ideologies such as ISIS represent the complete loss of religious freedom, and when respect for a diversity of religious beliefs and practices disappears, gender equality suffers. State University of New York Press.

Why Are Women More Religious?

Homer, Sophocles, Plato and Aristotle provide the genealogy of violence in Western thought that Jantzen critiques here, while Plotinus stands in for all those other-worldly seekers who gesture toward release in another world. This document also includes the research conducted over 10 years that informed the conference.
