The following provisions of the Order shall apply for the purposes of these Regulations as they apply for the purposes of Articles 7, 13 and 14 of the Order, and, unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in them to the Order shall be construed as a reference to these Regulations - a Article 4 presumptions that food intended for human consumption ; b Article 19 offences due to fault of another person ; c Article 20 defence of due diligence ; and d Article 34 obstruction, etc. First, to encourage people of working age to set aside sufficient funds for their own retirement. Such an order is known as a pension adjustment order.

The Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 1995

These Regulations make provision for the sterilisation and staining of animal by-products defined in regulation 3 and for the control of the movement of such by-products. Under family law legislation, responsibility for compliance with the legislation, in so far as it affects the administration of public service pension schemes, falls on the trustees of the schemes.

How pensions are assessed during a separation/divorce/dissolution

The collection originally dated to 1909 but the first five years' of records were eventually pulped. Both the 1841 and 1851 censuses were held at the Public Record Office in Dublin, where officials carried out the checks and returned their findings to the local Pensions Board.
