Tagore's Poetry in English Translation : a critical review

I noticed Matty seated on the other side of the room, and saw him glancing at me as his father spoke. Debates on which I had believed there to have been some positive movement over the last couple of decades seem to have made such little impact on many colleagues that it was as if the earlier debates had never happened. We can pick up the story of Psalms 68:31 with the King James version of the Bible, translated into the vernacular in 1611.

enjoyin' literature: Unaccustomed Earth: Generation at the Crossroads

In doing so it brings together in one volume some of the most significant literary thinkers in the Indian tradition of the last two millennia. He brought to my mother the first and, I suspect, the only pure happiness she ever felt.

Tagore's Poetry in English Translation : a critical review

But when we got there Deborah told me that my parents, feeling tired, had left, agreeing to let someone drive me home later. Unsurprisingly, the protest against the Gandhi statue draws inspiration from contemporaneous struggles against symbols of colonialism, apartheid and white supremacy all over the world, among which RhodesMustFall in South Africa is preeminent.
