All this serves to further alienate Aboriginal people from the justice system.

COURT REFORM

At the present time, court services in remote communities are provided by the Provincial Court, and deal almost exclusively with a limited number of criminal and family matters. In our opinion, all these matters should be in one court, with mediation, counselling and social services available to it. The services court communicators have provided in the past were not well defined.

Report on Sexual Offences Against the Mentally Handicapped

Requirements respecting third party entities 18.

COURT REFORM

These principally relate to the difficulties attendant on the complainant's competence to give evidence and to take the oath.

Provincial Offences

Not all comments were unfavourable.
