Normal people like us authored our ancient holy books. Andrew Seidel examines servant leadership, and George Hillman extends the discussion to include the significance of calling.

Foundations of Spiritual Formation: A Community Approach to Becoming Like Christ by Paul Pettit

Why do we continue to rely on now nearly incomprehensible stories that took place in an alien world as the sources for our spiritual inspiration? Spiritual actions often take time and particular effort, especially when they have not yet become habitual. Andrew Seidel examines servant leadership, and George Hillman extends the discussion to include the significance of calling.
