Eta Linnemann, Is There a Synoptic Problem? In sharp contrast, hadith about Muhammad composed centuries later ascribed fanciful miracles to him Bukhari 1:4:170; 5:59:428; 4:56:831, etc. In that year, Pilate moved from a figure who was known solely from ancient literature, to a figure who was attested to by archaeology. The discipline does have limitations.

Archaeology And The Old Testament

It is important to realize, however, that it is unrealistic to expect archaeology to back up every event and place in the New Testament.
