Fan : the story of a young girl's life by Hudson, W. H. (William Henry), 1841

Defeated, he predicted that Grettir would have no greater strength and less honor in arms from that day on, and that he would grow afraid of the dark. Nalapat took my hands and brought me out. Hammer retired from the charge of that church, until August, 1830, when having recovered he was called to the church in Frederick City, and remained there until June, 1833.

As The Witch of Ravensworth begins he seems to have already taken care of Gertrude, but he still has to take care of the kids, so he visits Ann Ramsey, the Witch of Ravensworth, and asks her to prophesy for him. Tousey dithered a bit; he didn't want to have to meet Tousey to agree to the deal, because then his real age would be known and, he feared, Tousey would not offer him the job.

The Peregrine

There are purchases upon purchases that will transform me into something more than what I am. The newly subjugated position of human beings causes the narrator to identify with other animals, to empathize with the creatures over whom human beings had previously asserted unreflecting dominance.
