66th "Black Panther Division"

After about three more waves, I was through the hole and on my feet. As a security force, the division was charged with establishment of a military government and control of all German affairs. Their legacy carried forward into World War II as the 92nd Division, approximately 15,000 soldiers whose unofficial name was the Buffalo Division and who served mainly in Italy, and in the 24th Infantry Regiment, about 1,000 soldiers, who fought in the Korean War.
