Determination of Value — K. Intangible property, to the extent it is taxable, is classified and taxed separately.

Personal Property

Tangible Property Tax Both real and tangible personal property are subject to ad valorem taxation by cities, counties and special taxing districts. The personal property is reported to the Appraiser's Office each year by March 15 to assign value and the property tax is paid in arrears to the Treasurer's Office by December 20. Examples of commercial and industrial machinery and equipment are desks, files, safes, communication equipment, computers, printers, copiers, scanners, hand tools, special tools such as jigs, dies, and molds, furniture, and machinery used in manufacturing.

Chapter 79.—TAXATION

Property taxation is administered by the Division of Property Valuation of the Department of Revenue together with local taxing officers.

Chapter 79.—TAXATION

The information shown is a partial list of Department of Revenue delinquencies. Property owners are required to report personal property. It is made available solely for the purpose of providing general guidance to assist parties with questions about the tax appeals process in Kansas.
