Kurdish Repression in Turkey

According to a June report by the Ministry of Family, Labor, and Social Services, 353,610 students with disabilities were in school, with 257,770 studying in regular schools and the remainder in either state-run or privately owned special education schools or classes. He introduced himself to the two literary giants.

Turkey’s political prisoners at risk from COVID

Observers widely reported the appeals process for institutions seeking redress remained opaque and ineffective see section 1. Human rights associations expressed serious concern regarding the inadequate provision of health care to prisoners, particularly the insufficient number of prison doctors. Contrary to the former Penal Code, the Articles against torture and ill-treatment Articles 94 to 96 were included in the chapter on offences against persons and not against the State.

Turkey: Torture, Sexual Abuse Rampant in Prisons :: Gatestone Institute

Turkish authorities also reported civilian casualties in Turkish-controlled parts of Syria in vehicle-borne improvised explosive device attacks they attributed to the YPG.

Let’s not forget Turkey’s political prisoners in the face of COVID19 threat

In late May public reports alleged that as many as 100 persons, including former members of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs dismissed under the 2016-18 state of emergency decrees due to suspected ties to the Gulen movement, were mistreated or tortured while in police custody.

Total Eclipse in Turkey: Torture, Political Prisoners and Despair

The government did not release information on its efforts to address abuse through disciplinary action and training.
