Religious Voting Blocs: Shades of Theocracy

Historical considerations were brought up during these meetings, such as the relationship between religion and authority, philosophy and theology, theocracy and democracy, dogmatism and liberalism and moral and religious ethics. Accordingly, one finds a much less juridical or doctrinaire approach to the separation of church and state in Montesquieu, which, for this very reason, might well be of greater theoretical interest and practical use in confronting the present day situation.

Religious Voting Blocs: Shades of Theocracy

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has repeatedly declared that Israel is the nation-state of the Jewish people.

Religions for Peace Calls all Parties to Choose Peace, Dialogue, and Democracy

Since it passed, the provision has applied to only 94 couples. We are raising our children as proud Jews. There is still a long way from belated repentance to genuine dialogue, joint plans and true solidarity among the religious organisations.

Religions in Dialogue: From Theocracy to Democracy : Race, alan, Shafer, Ingrid: ne-x.uni.rf.gd.au: Books

Religions in the face of modernity Over recent decades, religion has found itself up against new communications technologies which have developed beyond what had been imaginable. Even so, the public needs to be made aware of these discoveries. Ignorance, prejudice and manipulation A.

Religions for Peace Calls all Parties to Choose Peace, Dialogue, and Democracy

It sends specially trained researchers to the FSU to wade through old Soviet and even Czarist records to find documents attesting to Jewish lineage.

Religions in dialogue : from theocracy to democracy in SearchWorks catalog

Israeli society is much more traditional than would appear. It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good. Democracy and religion need not be incompatible.

The Theocracy in Democracy Project: An Uneasy Union

This has had a major impact on marriage in Israel, particularly on recent immigrants such as the approximately one million people who came from the Former Soviet Union FSU. The question in all of this is — is it healthy for a secular democracy to have religious voting blocs? But over the last two decades, the rabbinate has insisted upon increasingly stringent requirements for proving Jewish descent. Extremism is also the symptom of a sick society.
