Does Aristotle Refute the Harmonia Theory of the Soul?

Although one potentially loses an opportunity in Miller's translation to see some of Aristotle's more interesting technical terms at play here e. Second, Miller neglects to mention the view of Themistius, who informs us that the theory that Forms are identical to numbers and that Form-numbers are identical to psychic states is from Xenocrates' work On Nature, of which Themistius claims first-hand knowledge.
