Home gardening blooms around the world during coronavirus lockdowns

February 20, 2021; 8:30am - 12:30pm Registration open now! Click the red chat icon at the bottom right corner of your screen. Some of us do, some of us don't. Registrants who withdraw after that time will be responsible for the full fee.

Home Gardeners Are Driving Up Demand For Seeds, And Seed Companies Can't Keep Up

Are your raspberry canes falling into your garden path? We will learn about various methods for expertly installing and managing trellises for a variety of edible crops.

Using Cover Crops and Green Manures in the Home Vegetable Garden

Ideal for cucumbers, squash, peas, and flowering vines, this top pick can also be folded flat and stored when not in use. Volunteer citizen science is the foundation of the group, overseen and backed by professional scientists from Northern Arizona University. A second training session for volunteer trainers addressed any questions regarding the home gardener educational presentation and associated consumer evaluations.

Home Gardeners School

Fruit and vegetable seed sales are jumping worldwide. Steve Larimore was hoping to triple the size of his garden this year.

Garden to Table: Food Safety Practices of Home Gardeners

These are generally labeled as container or patio plants. A successful pollinator garden must feed all of them.

How to Grow a great Garden. Backyard Home Gardening Growing Tips, Plants, 2021 Seeds

Students will be introduced to the basic tools and knowledge to keep bees responsibly and productively.
