20th Century Canadian History

This is a spectacle, indeed, of marvellous development, largely within a century, and yet we are reminded that it is not the result of miracles, but of natural conditions.

“The Twentieth Century Belongs to Canada”

However, this is what all Canadians used to do. For 200 years, this hostility and insecurity played out in the form of an ultra-conservative, extremely Catholic, largely feudal, agrarian society that shut itself off from much of the modernization that had occurred in the rest of Canada.
