Their actions lead her to believe it is necessary to hide her sexuality so that the men will still regard her with some respect. She lacks compassion for what she considers weaker and submissive creatures such as Thea. Wellesley College was a college built to raise future wives and not future leaders meaning that society had already placed women below the ladder without any intention or thoughts of them climbing back This seems to point out her unwillingness to accept the burdens of motherhood.

Hedda Gabler Gender Roles Essay Essay

In the late 19th century, also known as the Victorian Age, scientific advancements and a newfound concern for human rights shaped the literary movement of realism. Expected to adhere to the set societal restrictions placed upon them, women had limited options in Victorian Norway.

Iraqi Academic Scientific Journals

The once flourishing aristocrats started to dwindle due to the new variety of jobs the Industrial Revolution brought. Despite all the advancements in the Industrial Revolution, gender roles were still the same, if not more defined.
