Influence of NGOs, World Bank and Members of Parliament on the Forestry Law. However, the powers of the CSD are limited; it can report to the General Assembly of the UN only through ECOSOC, and cannot peer-review national Agenda 21 statements.

Mount Cameroon and Bioko montane forests

Biological versus geochemical control and environmental change drivers of the base metal budgets of a tropical montane forest in Ecuador during 15 years

Commentators agree that the environmentalism of the 1960s and 1970s was a new social movement of profound significance. Between these two broad views there is tension. The HDI ranking has been calculated for 174 countries.
