André Breton by André Breton, Mark Polizzotti

Threat is piled upon threat, one yields, abandons a portion of the terrain to be conquered. So many questions resolved once and for all, as chance directs; the only discretionary power left me is to close the book, which I am careful to do somewhere in the vicinity of the first page.

Breton, André 1896

Some were able to synthesise anarchism and Surrealism on an individual level even if it had not happened on a collective level. Saint-Pol-Roux is Surrealist in his use of symbols. Polizzotti's new biography is a conscientious account of Breton's life and work.

André Breton: Selections

Why should we go on playing the role of those who are fed up and disgusted? This volume presents the most accurate history of the Surrealist movement from its evolution to its political misadventures to the scandals that dot its duration.

Manifesto of Surrealism
